Restaurant "Aldea" awarded.

New York, October 7 2010 - The new issue of the influent Michelin restaurant guide Michelin New York 2011 assigns one star to the restaurant "Aldea", of the Luso-American chef George Mendes, the first distinction of this kind awarded to the Portuguese-inspired cuisine in that city.

The "Dining Guide" of Michelin New York 2011 arrives today to the city vendors, but the listing of incoming and outgoing was released on last Wednesday.

About 40 restaurants are awarded a star, 10 two stars and an exclusive group of five the most, three stars.
